

SALVATORE CARUSO

DESIGN CORPORATION

SCDC's founder, Salvatore Caruso, studied Architecture in Italy and is licensed in the State of California C21343

On July 25, 2017, Salvatore Caruso was sworn in as the honorary consul of Italy.

Awards & Commendations

- Winner of the 2013 Pacific Coast Builders Conference (PCBC) Judges Special Award for Excellence.
- Winner of the 2012 PCBC Gold Nugget Grand Award for Best Custom Home Design, entries from U.S, Canada & China.
- Governor of California recognition to SCDC for designing and building the first LEED platinum multi-family housing in the State of California.
- Commendation from the Mayor of San Jose to SCDC for participation in the Midtown Specific Plan Task Force.
- Commendation from the Mayor and City Council of San Jose for Sal Caruso's contributions to the economic development and quality of life to the citizens of San Jose. Sal Caruso was recognized as a highly respected member of the design community, known for his innovation and community oriented design efforts.

Salvatore Caruso has served as:

- Chairman of the American Institutes of Architects Government Affairs Commission
- City of San Jose Planning Commission Chair
- City of San Jose Child Care Commission Liaison
- San Jose Unified School District Charitable Foundation Board Member
- Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors Sister County Commissioner to the Province of Florence, Italy
- Member of the San Jose Redevelopment Agency Urban Design Review Board

31 years ago SCDC was established with the objective of creating Architectural Innovation through cost effective solutions.

Design is in everything that exists. There are the Designs of Nature and the Design of Man; we seek to bring balance between the two for a sustainable symbiotic relationship.

- Salvatore Caruso, AIA